Dec. 18, 2013

Hello everyone!

Here is the proposed agenda for our community council meeting next Wednesday, Dec. 18th at 3:45 PM.

I know there's been a class conflict on Thursdays; however, if next Thursday is available and a better option for those unable to attend Wednesday, please let me know tomorrow by 2 PM.

Welcome- Jill Hunt

Review & Approval of Last meeting minutes-Mrs. Berglund, 5 min

Testing Update- Mr. Showalter

Sub Committee Updates- Each council member

Other Business

Please send me any updates and items you'd like to add to the agenda. If there is additions to the agenda or a change in meeting date/time-- I will send a new agenda out tomorrow afternoon. Otherwise, we will use this as our agenda for next week's meeting.

Again, sorry for the confusion. I thought there was a conflict in date and I apologize that this may cause some to miss. We want everyone to attend all the meetings as much as possible!

If you would like me to send a review on the sub-committee assignments prior to next week's meeting, please let me know as well.

Thanks!
